

2016
REENACTMENT RULES

1. Please be courteous to city employees, we really do want to be of service to you and we want you to return for years to come. Suggestions are appreciated.
2. Please park your vehicles in the designated reenactors parking area. Use the parking pass provided and place it on the dash on the driver's side so you can be waived through the reenactors gate should you be staying at a motel or need to leave after you have registered. PARKING IN CAMPING AREA OR DANCE GROUNDS WILL NOT BE ALLOWED AFTER 7:00 AM SATURDAY MORNING. POLICE OFFICERS WILL BE REMOVING VEHICLES.
3. No discharging of any firearms, cannons, etc. after 9:00 pm, except when scheduled for an event. Cleaning or clearing any pistol, rifle, or shotgun, with primers only, is permitted anytime.
4. Do not wear your firearms into any business in or out of uniform unless asked to do so.
5. Put trash in dumpsters upon departure Sunday or as needed. If you need trash bags, please ask an Employee. Please do NOT leave trash or trash cans overflowing
6. The use of either metal pans or fire rings is allowed (2-6 inches max) in the designated areas. (no unreasonable size fires though) No burning of trash, leaves or grass. Each camp site must have a bucket of water on hand. Fire extinguishers will be required in every-other camp.
7. There are to be no unattended fires at any time. Water buckets or camouflaged fire extinguishers are to be maintained near open fires at all times. Clean trash out of fire pits and replace dirt at the end of the event.
8. COGGINS TEST CERTIFICATES are required for all horses brought to the reenactment. This is for all horse owners' protection.
9. Horses need to be left in the designated area unless being exercised around the battlefield, the gravel road, or in the re-enactment. No riding through camp sites.
10. No grease or wads allowed in weapons. Cream of Wheat only, please. Safety is a must.
11. No illegal substances allowed. The use of alcohol is up to each commanding officer's discretion. Abuse of alcohol is prohibited.
12. Camping area is well designated. Tents shall be placed in an orderly military manner that the period dictates.
13. Arms inspection will be done by commanders each day and anytime, at their discretion. By signing the "RELEASE OF LIABILITY" (Hold Harmless Agreement) each person agrees to abide by these and all safety rules. Common sense is a must.
14. The commanding officer of each unit is ultimately responsible for the conduct of his men; however, severe violations of these rules can result in immediate expulsion of any individual(s).
15. No projectiles of any type for any weapon using black powder is allowed on the field at the time of the reenactment/battle or skirmishes
16. The city reserves the right to refuse registration to anyone for just cause. The City and the Host Unit wish each one of you a safe and eventful reenactment. Have fun, be safe, and come back again.
